Extend the capabilities of your ERP

Incentive plans are not aligned with business goals, quotas are oversimplified and internal systems cannot keep up with the increasing complexity of sales crediting rules and commission formulas. Failure to manage sales plans, quotas and territories can result in unproductive or misaligned incentive programs that are not only demotivating for sales teams but also have a direct, adverse effect on your bottom line.

With the Go-to-Market Suite® (GTMS®) Performance Incentives module by Vistex, you can align incentive plans with organizational goals and MBOs, motivate employees with precision and visibility, and seamlessly manage business-driven sales activities. Designed to support robust administration, financial accrual and settlement processing, and analysis and reporting for sales incentive plans, you'll realize performance that leads to results.

Drive behavior and optimize sales performance with incentive planning and sales commission crediting

Incentive Plans

Design incentive plans that motivate sales teams and align with business goals and policies. Increase sales volume without damaging sensitive margins.

Sales Commissions

Analyze sales transactions, determine sales credits and calculate compensation accurately according to incentive plan rules.

Incentive Plans

Elevate your company's sales strategy by aligning compensation with KPIs that directly contribute to profitability. The Incentive Plans component of the Performance Incentives module by Vistex provides a robust platform for designing and managing complex incentive plans across the enterprise. With end-to-end visibility, you can model, administer and analyze compensation tied to value-creation metrics such as revenue, margin and other business-critical measures as well as transaction events like order placement, billing and payment receipt.

You'll gain complete control over incentive plans with organizational goals to drive results. The solution enables companies to adopt and refine plans that support growth and profitability.

With real-time insights into goals, achievements and payouts, employees stay aligned with overall sales objectives and maximize earnings potential.

Sales Commissions

Motivate your sales team with transparent, goal-oriented commission structures that recognize individual contributions and reward exceptional performance. The Sales Commissions component of the Performance Incentives module by Vistex enhances engagement by providing employees with a clear understanding of their earning potential, helping them see how their efforts impact the bottom line.

Sales crediting decisions and commission calculations are fully traceable, reducing the effort to handle compensation disputes.
