Create, maintain and gain visibility into complex pricing scenarios

Correctly price products to win business, improve your margins

Today, with offerings multiplying and demand for customization growing, it is increasingly important – and more and more difficult – to manage the complex pricing scenarios offered to customers and partners. And nothing hurts profits and harms customer relationships more than mis-bidding contracts and misquoting the price of your products and services.

One Solution

Complete order entry to automate every part of the pricing and proposal process

Advanced Management Tools

Maintain and gain visibility into complex pricing offered to customers and partners

Sophisticated Analytics

Use what-if modeling to test pricing scenarios to ensure accuracy and boost profitability

There is a better way

To eliminate cumbersome manual processes and margin killing pricing mistakes, companies need a sophisticated solution to make sure it all adds up. Vistex solutions automate critical pricing processes, centralize pricing data, provide up-to-date price lists and, most important, enable the development of consistent and accurate offers, bids and quotes.

On-target pricing, efficient workflows

Vistex solutions provides a foundation for reliable bid and quote management with intelligent processes that automate quote entry and bid responses, validate pricing according to rules and policies that you define, and manage and track reviews and approvals with sophisticated workflow tools. In addition, product import tools can automatically determine prices for new products utilizing user-defined formulas, acceptable price ranges and high/low targets.

Exceptional flexibility, extraordinary insight

Vistex solutions provide unmatched insight by giving you the tools you need to propose, analyze and execute bids and quotes within a single solution suite. And with the ability to analyze proposed pricing to determine true margin, you gain visibility into the complete gross-net for individual products, product line or product portfolio. With Vistex, your business offers correct pricing every time.

Vistex solutions offer you the ability to define, manage and create sophisticated pricing agreements that include performance tiers, eligibility requirements, sales channel restrictions and complex terms and conditions. The result is pricing that motivates customers to act in ways that generate greater volumes and higher profits for your business.

The right software makes it all add up

- Instant, automatic calculation of pricing applying user defined formulas and rules
- Comprehensive analytics, including waterfall analysis, simulations and what-if modeling
- Mobile price-quoting tools for efficient, accurate quotes in the field
